Call to Worship

L: In days to come, the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established as the highest of the mountains,
and shall be raised above the hills;

C: ... all the nations shall stream to it.

L: Many peoples shall come and say,

C: "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths."

L: For out of Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

C: He shall judge between the nations, and shall arbitrate for many peoples;

L: ... they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks;

C: ... nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
neither shall they learn war any more.

L: O house of Jacob, come,

C: ... let us walk in the light of the Lord!

Affirmation of Faith

L: In the beginning was the Word,

C: ... and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

L: He was in the beginning with God.

C: All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being.

L: What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people.

C: The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overtake it.

L: There was a man sent from God whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him.

C: He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light.

L: The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

C: He was in the world, and the world came into being through him, yet the world did not know him.

L: He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God.

C: And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.

Benediction

Dismissal

L: Go in peace. Keep awake.

C: Thanks be to God!

We Go to Love as Jesus Loves Us!
